LAS VEGAS (April 24, 2025) - WestCorp Management Group, Nevada's third-largest full-service real estate property management company, proudly announces the grand opening of two new luxury apartment communities in Northern and Southern Nevada. "We are delighted to be the management company of choice for these Black Mountain Communities," said Jed Weidauer, Vice President of Business Development for WestCorp Management Group. "We began our partnership with Black Mountain Communities on the Calm at Rainbow project in the northwest area of Las Vegas and have continued to work closely with property ownership at every step through the construction and operational stages. We are pleased to include Calm at Northtowne and Calm at Eastern to our lease-up portfolio."

Calm at Northtowne is located at 2830 Northtown Lane in Reno, Nevada. The high-end amenities have been curated to elevate residents' lifestyles, establishing an exceptional living destination in Washoe County. With stunning views of the Reno valley from nearly every apartment home, modern finishes throughout and luxurious details in every room, Calm at Northtowne delivers an elevated living experience designed to impress. Residents can choose from a studio, one-bedroom or two-bedroom apartment homes.

Calm at Eastern is located in Las Vegas at 4330 Channel 10 Dr. The property offers studio apartments along with one- or two-bedroom options. The property's convenient central location offers easy access to premier entertainment, live sporting events, shopping, dining and major roadways, ensuring seamless travel to any destination.

Both communities are pet-friendly and feature premium amenities, including stainless steel appliances, wood-style flooring, and in-unit washers and dryers. Residents can also enjoy a range of upscale community spaces, such as a business center, clubhouse, fitness center and more.
